PINOT NOIR

Burgundy - France

I have loved Red Burgundy for decades, ever since the first really great Pinot Noir passed my lips. Who could fail to be entranced? Here is a wine which can sing like a nightingale, shine fourth like a sapphire, intrigue like the most complex of chess problems, and seduce like the first kiss of someone you are about to fall in love with. Moreover great burgundy can inspire like a great orator, satisfy like the most subtle of five star meals, and leave you at peace at end like the slow movement of a Mozart piano concerto. At its best the wine is complex but not puzzling, profound but not didactic, perfect but not intimidating, and magnificent but never other than friendly.
